Match the quote to the person who said it:

Quote 1:

(On why it would be difficult to serve under Ewart Brown:)
“I think if people conducted themselves with more integrity and decorum and put the interests of the country first we would have less public bloodletting.”

Royal Gazette, October 25, 2006

Quote 2:

“Integrity and honour at the top is not what we currently have, and it will continue to unfold under Dr. Brown. His modus operandi is that the rules are made for others, not for him...He is known to use people to get what he wants and then step on them.”

Royal Gazette, July 4, 2007

Quote 3:

“You are not better off than you were three years ago – neither is your neighbour, and neither is your son or daughter.”

Royal Gazette, October 28, 2006

Quote 4:

“A change of Government now would be a step along the road towards political maturity.”

Bermuda Sun, December 14, 2007

Quote 5:

“The country needs a change and it needs one now. The Government’s performance over a nine-year period has been simply unsatisfactory. Whether they (Government figures) have acted unethically, or unwisely, or simply unacceptably, there are just too many questions regarding their conduct, both professionally and personally.”

Bermuda Sun, December 14, 2007

Quote 6:

“Hopefully Bermudians will give it a lot of thought and try to work out the consequences of voting for a party that promotes anti-corruption legislation and a party that is simply silent on the issue.”

Bermuda Sun, December 14, 2007

Quote 7:

“We will be a government that puts the people first. I don’t say that lightly. My approach to politics begins and ends on the doorstep. I do not believe you can have effective government unless you understand the needs and concerns of the people you represent.”
